Atlantic Aero is Daher-Socata newest authorized TBM Service Center

Greensboro, NC August 2009 – Daher-Socata has designated Atlantic Aero as it's newest authorized TBM Service Center in North America. Centrally located on the East Coast, Atlantic Aero stands ready to provide TBM operators with complete FBO & MRO services including maintenance, Pratt & Whitney authorized PT-6A-64/66D line services, avionics repairs and installs, interior refurbishment and in house engineering support. Atlantic Aero TBM support capabilities also encompass factory warranty services and administration for Daher-Socata as well as Pratt and Whitney, 24/7 AOG support/road crew dispatch as well as secured access to the Daher-Socata parts inventory web based program.

“We already made arrangements to insure 24/7 support for operators by simply dialing 800-334-2001, sent 6 Technicians to factory training and secured tooling, equipment, technical data as well as a great working relationship with the factory technical support staff and parts distribution centers” explained Jim Spinder, President of Atlantic Aero. “Our staff is thrilled with the opportunity to work with Daher-Socata and extend support to TBM operators” he added.
